

imate friends, St. V. Le Sour de Provo, on Wednesday last.

Mrs. M. P. Silver of Salt Lake is spending the holidays with her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Silver of Provo.

Miss Henrietta Naff, an American Fork school teacher, is spending the holiday vacation with her mother in Provo.

Soren X. Christensen and family of Mt. Pleasant have been spending the holiday week with Provo friends and relatives.

Helen Berg of Tilden, Ida, nephew of O. H. Berg, was visiting in Provo during the week.

Mr. J. U. Bush, Provo's city recorder, spent Christmas day with friends in Tintic.

Albert Dixon has been spending the holidays with Provo friends and relatives.

Claude Hathenbruck and family came down from Heber to take Christmas dinner with Mr. Hathenbruck's parents.

Claude King of Heber, and his old college associates this week.

Ed Rowe, one of the academy champions in the literary contest last year between the R. Y. academy and the state university, is spending his holiday in Provo.

MERCUR SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Mercur, Dec. 29.—Christmas passed off very quietly and not an arrest was made. Sunday evening the little folks were made happy at the Methodist church, and a splendid programme was rendered.

The mass at the Catholic chapel drew a large audience, the rendition of mass being excellent.

Monday evening the Golden Gate band gave a concert which was successful both financially and socially.

The children of the Latter-Day Saints Sunday school were made happy by a Christmas tree on Tuesday evening. The services were appropriate and well rendered.

The Salvation Army held Christmas services at their barracks Tuesday night.

Quite a number of the Mercur young folks took in the dance at Manning's Christmas night.

Mark Burns has returned to the camp once more, and will be found at his old post in the Miner office.

Arch Milner, accompanied by A. C. McCune of Salt Lake, spent several days in the camp this week.

C. E. Preble, one of the pioneers of the camp, is shaking hands with old friends and looking after his extensive mining interests in Camp Floyd. He has been in Oregon for some time, where he became interested in some valuable mining property.

There are not many people who found as large a present in their stockings as did Mrs. French. A check for $10.00 was at the bottom of it. Mrs. French joined the ranks of debtors about a month ago and this token makes a very handsome marriage present.

Mrs. Herrington received a parrot from San Francisco as a Christmas present.

The firemen will give a ball on New Year's night.

Mr. Jackling and wife left Mercur this week for Republic, Wash., where he will take charge of the Republic mill.

Mrs. James Quirk presented her husband with a fine baby girl on Tuesday.

James Kirk of Mercur was married to Mrs. Ferguson of Salt Lake on Wednesday.

George Turt spent Christmas with his parents in Salt Lake.

M. F. Myer and wife are Salt Lake visitors this week.

The Union Mercantile company made a change of business this week. While Mr. Kimball is the official manager the store will be in charge of James Marshall and Mr. Lawrence. Mr. Malenken will retire from active participation in the business.

Lynn Watt and Charley Whittick are home from the Agricultural college for the holidays.

Mayor Wilde and his wife spent a few days in Zion this week.

Mrs. Fred Gundry and baby of Salt Lake spent Christmas in Mercur with her husband.

T. Foster of Salt Lake made a business trip to Mercur the first of the week.

Bert Klefer, who has spent several weeks in the Sunshine district, is once more in Mercur.

Samuel Garves of Salt Lake spent Christmas with his daughter, Mrs. John Sinder.

Mrs. McIntosh of St. Johns was a visitor to the camp this week.

Mr. Lawson came out from Salt Lake this week to look after his mining property.

J. T. Craft has moved into his new rooming house above the Palmer.

Mabel Dodge, aged 19 years, while coasting down the hill near the hospital Friday, ran into a passing wagon and was severely injured. She was carried home, and though unable to walk, it was found there were no bones broken.

SPRINGVILLE SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Springville, Dec. 29.—The Crandall family tenth annual reunion was held at the Reynolds hall Wednesday afternoon and evening. About 300 members of the family and invited guests were present. As this is without doubt the largest family in this part of the state, and the annual reunions bring together socially a great many people, both from this city and abroad, it is looked forward to with many pleasant anticipations and is the leading event of the week after the winter.

Ten of these reunions have now been held and each succeeding year brings new and pleasant enjoyment.

A carefully prepared musical and literary programme was carried out, as follows:

Part First—Dancing from 2 to 5 p. m.; picnic from 5 to 8 p. m.

Part Second—Song (composed by Myron Crandall, company; prayer, Chaplain M. E. Crandall; song, company; address of welcome, Ernest M. Boyer; instrumental music, Edith Crandall; quartette, M. E. Crandall, Jr. and company; stump speech, R. Leo Bird; family facts, Historian, L. D. Crandall; song, Rue Packard; living panorama.

A business meeting followed the programme, at which arrangements were suggested for next year's meeting and a general committee appointed. L. D. Crandall acted as master of ceremonies and Myron E. Crandall, Jr., as musical director.

The historian reported two deaths, and that the past year had showed an increase in members, through marriages and births, of upwards of a dozen.

The oldest representatives of the family present were Mrs. Eliza Deal and Mrs. Laura Bird.

The festivities concluded at a late hour and were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Miss Maud Mathews of this city and Mr. Roy Eaten of Payson were married at Payson Wednesday night. The bride is a well known young lady of this city.

Frank Raymond spent the holidays in town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Packard of Silver City spent the week in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milan Packard.

A New Year's dance will be given in the Reynolds hall Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber Jex of Spanish Fork spent Christmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bird.

Mark Burns returned to Mercur on Monday.

The Allen family will hold their reunion next Friday evening at the city hall.

Miss Nellie Smith of Draper is the guest of Miss Zoe Johnson.

The attendance at the Maccabee ball given last evening in Reynolds' hall was in the neighborhood of 200, and it was the most carefully arranged and most enjoyable dance of the season. Christensen's orchestra of Salt Lake furnished the music. This was the third annual ball given by the local order, Knights of the Maccabees.

Miss Ella Dufferfield of Salt Lake and Miss May Dufferfield of Provo were the guests of Miss Maud Carter yesterday.

Arthur Storrs of Gunnison was here this week on a visit to his parents.

Hon. William M. Roylance visited at Logan this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mendenhall are spending the week with their daughter, Mrs. Irene Jensen, at Logan.

The track layers and section men of the Rio Grande Western railway gave a dance at the city hall Wednesday evening.

The Christmas dance at Reynolds' hall on the night of the 24th was well attended.

Sheila Storrs and Mrs. Storrs were over from Provo Thursday night, attending the Maccabee ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyer are down from Eureka for a week's visit at home.

A married people's ball will be given at the Johnson hall in Mapleton Tuesday evening. The committee in charge are: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Bird and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Johnson.

County Auditor George Wood and Mrs. Wood of Salt Lake were in town this week visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Wood.

Miss Ruby Hall returned from Weiser, Ida, this week.

Ralph Wood is at home for a week's visit.

Dr. Slater of Spanish Fork was in town yesterday.

W. B. Douglas and W. Bowman were down from Scoville this week visiting at home.

Misses Nellie and Sadie Boyer came down from Salt Lake Saturday for the holidays.

Professor and Mrs. William Alexander of Salt Lake are spending the holidays with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Boyer.

Miss Lorena Finley and Mr. Archie Roylance, both of this city, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Finley, on Christmas night.

Bishop Joseph Loynd officiating. A large number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony and partook of an elegant wedding supper. The bride is a well known teacher in the Springville schools and the groom is a brother of Hon. William M. Roylance. They will make their home in this city.

Moss Douglas and Robert Stevenson came down from Salt Lake Sunday to spend holiday week at home.

William Robertson of Eureka is here visiting his brother George.

Mr. and Mrs. Quet Johnson of Spanish Fork spent Monday here visiting relatives.

P. E. Houze made a business trip to Richfield the first of the week.

Don C. Johnson has returned home from Salt Lake, having discontinued his studies at the Sheldon-Jackson college for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spafford of Castle Gate were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Thorpe this week.

David Packard returned from Marysville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rosenman came down from Castle Gate Saturday evening for a week's visit with relatives.

The marriage of Mr. George T. Smith of this city and Miss Ella Rose of Joseph City took place at Mantle last week. This news comes as a surprise to many of Mr. Smith's friends here. The newly married couple will make their home at Joseph City.

Judge Edward Kirk and wife of Ogden are here on a visit to the latter's sister, Mrs. G. P. Thompson.

SPRING CITY SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Spring City, Dec. 29.—Rowland Madsen of Eureka spent a few days in town.

Hugh Alford came in from Bingham Monday and will remain over for a few days.

Miss Maria Beck, one of the teachers in the Sappete state academy, is spending the holidays with friends this week.

Professor Osmund Justesen, principal of the district schools, is spending the week at Salt Lake.

Miss Maude Harold of Mt. Pleasant called on friends during the week.

Scott McClellan of Los Angeles county, visited with friends during the early part of the week.

N. P. Nelson of Mantle visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bunnell a portion of the week.

S. T. Beck and wife and William Osborn and wife visited in Wales one day this week.

Fred Strate returned from Canada this week, where he has been for the last two years.

James Jensen of this city and Miss Crandall of Payson were married at Provo one day last week. Their many friends here wish them unbounded happiness. They will make their home at Eureka.

A very enjoyable party was given by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Billington at their home Saturday. It being the forty-fourth birthday of Mr. Billington. An elegant repast was served, and all present thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Johnson gave a Christmas eve dinner to a number of their friends, at which the following were present: Louis Black and wife, Fred Strate and wife, C. H. Strate and wife, Frank Crawford and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Madsen celebrated their silver wedding at their home on Dec. 28. Many relatives and friends were present, and a bounteous spread was served. Many very beautiful presents were in evidence, bespeaking the esteem in which the recipients are held by their friends.

Music, singing and games were in evidence until the hour of parting. Those present: W. L. H. Dotson and wife, Misses L. M. Marshall and Mrs. Rawlins of Wyoming, Friends Jensen and wife, Mrs. Trema Christensen, Fred Clark and wife, C. Johansen and wife, H. number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony and partook of an elegant wedding supper. The bride is a well known teacher in the Springville schools and the groom is a brother of Hon. William M. Roylance. They will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Jensen were among the visitors in Spring City Thursday.

Rev. J. M. Hansen of Ephraim was here Saturday last.

A wedding of the week was that of George Brown and Miss Annie McClennahan, which occurred Christmas night. The young couple created all excepting their near relatives to a genuine surprise, as none had thought their wedding would be so soon. They have many friends among the young people of the city who are offering them congratulations.

Mrs. Rawlins and Mrs. Marshall, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dotson, are in from Fort Bridger, Wyo., on a visit to relatives.

A very pleasant winter party was indulged in Thursday evening by a few friends at the residence of Web Greene. A fine luncheon and social chat, in addition to the whist playing, were means of passing an enjoyable evening. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. W. Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Dotson, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Morrey, Mrs. R. W. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyden.

LOGAN SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Logan, Dec. 29.—Logan society people celebrated the holidays very quietly. There were many small home parties and the usual number of balls and other holiday amusements, but no entertainment of an extraordinary nature.

Mr. and Mrs. David Robbins entertained a few friends at dinner Monday. Among the guests were Judge C. C. Goodwin and wife, Mr. Clarence Hunter, P. E. Keeler and wife and Mr. George Farrell.

Professor George W. Thatcher and wife spent Christmas in Salt Lake.

Mr. M. C. Roeder of Leotin, Ida, visited in Logan during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Houston of McCammon, Ida, visited relatives in Logan during the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hollier of Ogden are spending the holidays in Logan as the guests of Mrs. Hollier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McLaughlin of Silver City are spending a few days with Logan relatives.

Mr. J. Ed Hyde is down from Baker City, Ore., visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. R. G. Fenton of Salt Lake visited in this city the first of the week.

Bishop William F. Hopkins and wife are down from Luna, Mont., to spend the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Moses Thatcher, Jr.

Will G. Farrell of Salt Lake was here greeting his Logan friends the first of the week.

C. O. Card, president of the Alberta (Canada) state, is visiting with his family in this city.

Attorney Sam J. Rich of Blackfoot, Ida., made a call on his old friends in this city on Thursday.

Mr. Clarence Hunter of Hamburg, Ia., is visiting in Logan as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Keeler.

Attorney Arthur Hart of Preston, Ida., was the guest of his brother, Judge C. H. Hart, on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Walt Fryer of Salt Lake ate his Christmas dinner with Logan friends.

Miss Florence Cates came up from Ogden on Saturday to enjoy a holiday outing with relatives here.

Hon. R. W. Sloan spent Christmas with his family here.

A big farewell party will be tendered Councilman A. G. Lundstrom in the Seventh ward hall on Tuesday evening. Mr. Lundstrom leaves the day following for Europe.

A party in honor of the 38th birthday of Mr. Jacob Earl of the Sixth ward was given last evening at Earl's residence. A choice repast was partaken of and then the assembled guests listened to reminiscence remarks by Mr. Earl of his experiences as a member of the Mormon battalion and pioneer of Utah. Cards and music rounded out a very pleasant evening.

County Treasurer Hendricks spent Christmas with relatives in Richmond.

EPHRAIM SOCIETY.

(Special Correspondence.)
Ephraim, Dec. 29.—Miss Julia Dorius spent several days of this week visiting relatives and friends in Gunnison.

Miss Ida Peterson is home from Provo to spend the holidays.

J. F. F. Dorius visited Spring City friends the last of the week.

Miss Evelyn Sorenson was surprised by merry party of girls last night, who dropped in very unexpectedly. They were loaded down with "picnic" and came prepared to have a good time. Miss Sorenson received a handsome present as a token of friendship.

Mrs. John Hansen of Belknap is visiting her parents during the holidays.

P. C. Peterson, Jr. spent a few days of this week at Elsinore visiting friends.

Miss Julia Dorius entertained friends Wednesday evening.

Prof. John Johnson of the Sappete state academy, accompanied by his family, is

A favorite for 21 years, a tea that will stand the most searching investigation as to its purity, flavor and strength.

Pride of Japan

(Tree) Tea

spending the holidays at his home in Elsinore.

Tony Christensen was over from Levan Saturday.

Bruce Brown and wife of Mantle were Ephraim visitors Sunday.

The Ephraim orchestra played for a ball in Mantle Wednesday night.

A pioneer ball will be held in the opera house tonight. All participants are expected to wear costumes similar to those worn by the pioneers. It promises to be a very successful affair.

Alvin Bellander came home from Black Rock this week. He will remain here during the winter.

Miss Sadie Larsen of this city is spending the holidays with relatives in Sevier county.

Professor N. E. Noyes, principal of the academy, is spending the holidays with relatives in Provo.

C. L. Thorpe and Thomas Fautin went to Elsinore this week.

F. Y. Jensen and wife are visiting relatives this week in Pleasant Grove and other Utah county towns.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Olof Olson Wednesday.

Andrew Thorpe and Ezra Madsen were Mantle visitors Wednesday.

James Frost and wife visited Richfield relatives this week.

Miss Helen Funk of Sterling is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ezra Madsen.

A pleasant dancing party was given in Schwab's hall last Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lehi Peterson. A large crowd was in attendance. Luncheon was served during the evening.

James Blain and wife of Spring City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hansen this week.

Ezra Madsen and wife visited Sterling relatives Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Frost, who has been visiting her daughter in Richfield for the past month, came home yesterday.

Joseph Brimhall of Payson is visiting his brothers here this week.

Miss Neuta and Mr. John N. Dorius gave a very pleasant Christmas party Wednesday evening. The guests were: Misses Anna and Marie Anderson, Sylvia Olson, Callie and Ella Dorius and Sarah Peterson, Messrs. Ephraim Hansen, Almas Solberg, Thomas Beal, Orval Peterson, Andrew Thorpe and Orson Frost. The evening was pleasantly spent at playing games.

Sweeping Reductions!

Z. C. M. I. CLOAK DEPARTMENT

TUESDAY, January 2, and All the Week

Our stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Winter Goods must all go. We want the room for fresh shipments now arriving. These goods are rare Bargain offers, one-third to one-half off the regular price—away below cost.

Suits, Waists, Coats, Jackets, Skirts, Dresses, Fur Scarfs, Capes and Collarettes

In This Sale go at

33 1/3 to 50% OFF

Remember that this is no old stock, but that every article was selected carefully for this season's trade, the entire assortment consisting of

BRAND NEW GOODS IN THE LATEST STYLES

Here are a few of the items; there are many more:

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits - - - Half Price
All Ladies' Jackets, - - - One-third Off
Entire line of Separate Skirts and Children's Ready-made Dresses, - - - One-third Off

All Fancy Silk Waists, - - - Half Price
Children's Reefer Jackets, - - - One-third Off
All $7.50 to $25.00 Tea Gowns, - - - One-third Off

Children's Long Coats, - - - Half Price
Jackets for Misses, 14, 16 and 18 years old, - - - One-third Off
All $3.50 to $7.50 Cloth Capes, - - - One-third Off

Great Sale of Winter Underwear

in LADIES', MISSES' and CHILDREN'S GOODS, at

Z. C. M. I.

M. I.

T. G. WEBBER, Supt.